Effective Date: July 1, 2026

1. Introduction

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") govern your access to and use of the website, digital properties, content, communications, materials, online forms, investor or partner inquiry channels, and related services made available by LKS BROTHERS LLC, doing business as LKSB ("LKS BROTHERS LLC," "LKSB," "we," "us," or "our") (collectively, the "Services").

By accessing or using the Services, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms and our Privacy and Cookies Policy. If you do not agree to these Terms, you should not access or use the Services.

These Terms are intended to define the conditions under which visitors, clients, prospective clients, prospective partners, prospective investors, business contacts, advisors, vendors, counterparties, and other users may access and use the Services.

2. Description of Services

LKSB operates at the intersection of investment finance, venture capital, strategic partnerships, U.S. market entry, cross-border business development, and disciplined risk management.

The Services may provide information regarding LKSB, affiliated or related entities, strategic initiatives, business activities, market-entry support, investment-related discussions, venture capital activities, private investment opportunities, partnership opportunities, capital formation, project evaluation, investor relations, and sectors such as Water Solutions, Mineral Resources, infrastructure, technology, and other commercial opportunities.

The Services are provided for informational, business development, communication, relationship management, and preliminary evaluation purposes. The Services do not, by themselves, create a client relationship, advisory relationship, investor relationship, fiduciary relationship, partnership, joint venture, agency relationship, fund interest, subscription right, or contractual engagement between you and LKSB.

Any specific engagement, investment, fund interest, advisory arrangement, securities transaction, partnership, project, capital-raising activity, or business relationship must be governed by separate written agreements, offering documents, subscription documents, disclosures, risk factors, and other applicable documents accepted by LKSB.

3. Acceptance of Terms

- you have read and understood these Terms;
- you agree to comply with these Terms;
- you have the legal capacity to enter into these Terms;
- if you are acting on behalf of a company, fund, trust, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, family office, organization, or other entity, you have authority to bind that entity;
- your access to and use of the Services will comply with all applicable laws and regulations; and

- you will not use the Services for any unlawful, fraudulent, misleading, abusive, or unauthorized purpose.

Your continued use of the Services after changes to these Terms are posted or otherwise made available constitutes your acceptance of the revised Terms.

You may not use the Services if:

- you are under 18 years of age;

- your access to the Services has previously been suspended or terminated by LKSB.

5. Regulatory Status

LKSB may engage in investment-related, venture capital, private investment, strategic partnership, capital formation, market-entry, and business development activities through one or more affiliated entities, funds, investment vehicles, special purpose vehicles, contractual arrangements, or other structures.

Nothing on the Services should be interpreted as a representation that LKSB or any affiliated entity is registered as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, funding portal, securities exchange, bank, trust company, insurance company, commodity trading advisor, commodity pool operator, or other regulated financial institution unless expressly stated in separate written disclosures or governing documents.

Any regulated activity, if applicable, will be conducted only through an appropriately registered, exempt, licensed, or otherwise authorized entity or person and will be subject to separate agreements, offering documents, regulatory disclosures, investor questionnaires, and applicable law.

No statement on the Services should be understood to expand, modify, or replace any regulatory disclosure, fund document, advisory agreement, subscription agreement, private placement memorandum, limited partnership agreement, operating agreement, side letter, engagement agreement, or similar document.

Any investment opportunity, fund interest, securities offering, partnership interest, private placement, financing, or capital-raising activity will be made only through separate written offering documents, subscription materials, risk disclosures, investor questionnaires, and other applicable documents.

No person should make any investment decision based solely on information available through the Services. Access to information through the Services does not mean that any investment opportunity is available to you or suitable for you.

9. No Advisory, Fiduciary, or Client Relationship Created by Website Use

Your access to or use of the Services does not create an investment advisory relationship, fiduciary relationship, client relationship, fund investor relationship, partnership, joint venture, agency relationship, representative relationship, or similar relationship with LKSB.

Any advisory, fiduciary, investment management, fund management, client, investor, or contractual relationship will arise only if expressly established by a separate written agreement, offering document, subscription agreement, advisory agreement, fund document, engagement agreement, or other binding instrument accepted by LKSB.
